

MEET THE MANAGERS

Bringing Investment Professionals Together

Trevor Slater

Client Director

Financial Dispute Resolution Service

Trevor Slater is a highly qualified and experienced commercial mediator and negotiator. He holds a Masters Degree in Conflict Resolution from La Trobe University and a Diploma of Business – Frontline Management from the Australian Institute of Management. He is also a Senior Associate (CIP) of the Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance.

Trevor is the Client Director of Financial Dispute Resolution Service. Previously Trevor headed up the conciliation programme at the Office of the Banking Ombudsman having moved from Australia to New Zealand in July 2008.

Trevor has also been involved in private practice which includes teaching conflict resolution and conducting private mediations and has delivered workshops in the UK, New Zealand and South Africa.